Supreme Court Clears Way for Toll Roads, Collection of '52 Truck Fees

Area Towns Urged To Fight Removal Of NYC Trains

Bulletin!

BIG BULLETIN!!
SUPER BULLETIN!!!

BY MAIL: "Dear Sir: On June 7th the New York Central railroad is conducting a hearing with the Illinois Commerce Commission at Springfield in connection with the removal of trains 462 and 463 between Harrisburg and Chicago.

"If they are allowed to remove these trains it will leave you entirely without rail transportation.

HEARING AT ELDORADO
Mayor Claud Gibbons said today that a meeting will be held at the Eldorado city hall at 7:30 p. m. Friday to discuss the hearing to take off the NYC passenger train. Eldorado Mayor Carl Johnson said that all who desire to retain the train are invited to the meeting.

This is a detriment to any community that is trying to interest new industry in locating in that area.

"Rail facilities is one of the major factors in the location of new industry in any community. Once taken off, a train is never replaced. It can only be kept on by the voice of the people.

"Mail, express, baggage, passenger service and dollars paid to the people of your community who service these trains are involved."

So come on, Harrisburg, Eldorado and Carrier Mills. Here's a good chance to unite and pull together on something that will do all of the county some good.

Petitions for Rehearings of Decisions Denied

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — The Illinois Supreme Court today denied petitions for rehearings of its decisions which gave a green light to the toll road program and cleared the way for the state to collect about six million dollars in 1952 truck license fees.

State Treasurer Warren E. Wright had asked for a rehearing in the toll road case.

Dale Lange, a Platt County trucker, had requested the rehearing in the truck license case.

In its original decision, the high court ordered Wright to turn over 415 million dollars worth of toll road bonds to the State Toll Road Commission and accept payment for them from the underwriters.

Wright contended in his rehearing petition that the court order did not resolve the matter because it ordered him to turn over the bonds to the commission.

The commission had requested an order directing Wright to turn over the bonds directly to the bond underwriters.

Wright argued that as state treasurer he should be only custodian of the Toll Road Commission funds and should not be involved in any way in the bond sale.

In the Lange case, the original Supreme Court decision said the state had the right to collect unaided 1952 truck license fees due under a 1951 license increase.

The increase had not been collected while the 1951 act establishing it was before the courts. After the 1951 law was declared valid, Lange argued the state could not collect $975 in 1952 truck fees he did not pay while the increase law was being studied by the courts.

The court ruled against Lange, and the state moved to collect some six million dollars still outstanding in 1952 truck fees.

Indicate Gov't Taking Steps to Aid Detroit Area

DETROIT (AP) — New appeals for federal aid to Michigan's employed were promised today in the wake of additional layoffs by the auto industry.

But there were two indications the government was already taking steps to ease the situation.

The latest layoffs were the result of production slashes by the General Motors Corp. and the Ford Motor Co. No estimate of the total numbers of workers laid off was immediately available.

Pat Quinn, vice president of United Auto Workers Union Local 3, here, Monday called for a mass meeting of the industry's unemployed for next Sunday when he heard of the latest production cuts.

He said his union planned to ask for a huge federal public works program to aid Detroit's unemployed.

One indication that the government was planning action was revealed here Monday by Howard Pyle, administrative aide to President Eisenhower.

Indicate Defense Contracts
Pyle, in Detroit to attend a Republican gathering, told reporters the Council of Economic Advisors was studying the situation and said "Something will be done speedily." He indicated relief might come through the channel of defense contracts to the area.

Both Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Mayor Albert E. Cobo of Detroit have asked the government recently for some such action.

Another note of hope was sounded Monday when Williams revealed a telegram from Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell which answered the governor's request that seven Michigan areas be declared labor surplus areas.

Mitchell told Williams his office was reviewing the entire labor market situation but was "giving particular attention to any areas affected by the automobile layoffs."

Most marshal, said Melton came back to the air base Saturday, while police were trying to find him between here and Kansas City, Kan.

Chanule officials said Melton left the girls, Linda Sue, 3, and Nancy, 4, with his mother, Mrs. Eunice Estell, at Kansas City. The Air Force did not bring charges against Melton, although he was reported AWOL last Thursday after taking the children.

Melton seized the two little girls at the Full Gospel Community Church last Wednesday where Mrs. Melton and the two children were attending a prayer meeting. He said his wife had been separated since last February.

Billion Slashed From Aid Funds By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Foreign Affairs Committee voted 18-11 today to slash one billion dollars in military funds from President Eisenhower's $4,900,000,000 foreign aid program.

President Eisenhower had urged approval of the entire program and warned that any major cuts would jeopardize this country's global position.

Committee Chairman James P. Richards (D-SC), in announcing the cut, said the administration has "ample funds" already on hand to carry out all necessary military aid programs for at least the next two years.

He pointed to five billion dollars in military funds approved by past Congresses and still not spent.

The one-billion-dollar slash was approved after the committee rejected on a "rather close" vote a proposed $1,200,000,000 cut in military aid. Richards declined to give the precise vote on the deeper cut.

An attempt by Rep. John M. Vorys (Ohio), key Republican on the committee, to hold the cut to 500 million dollars also was defeated.

In voting the one-billion-dollar cut, the committee specified that 48 million dollars of the remaining military funds must be used in Spain and that not more than 402 million dollars should be spent in Europe.

The development came as Secretary of State John Foster Dulles pledged the administration to an all-out Senate fight to win specific authority to make long-term foreign aid commitments.

Wasson Youth Faces Term At State Farm

LeRoy Pritchett, 19-year-old youth from Wasson picked up by Deputy Sheriff James Lyon for drunken driving, today faced a term at the Vandalia state farm.

A petition to revoke his probation has been filed by county authorities and is scheduled to be heard Monday.

Pritchett in February was sentenced to a year at Vandalia, then placed on probation for a year, after he pleaded guilty to taking part in the theft of copper wire from an Illinois Power Co. substation in Eldorado the night of Jan. 25.

Last October he and two others paid fines totalling $83.50 after pleading guilty to charges of disorderly conduct. A Harrisburg cab driver charged that he was struck over the head by one of three youths after he had taken them to their stalled automobile between Harrisburg and Shawnee town.

The driver said they left him without paying the fare.

Film on Peacetime Uses of Atomic Energy Shown at Rotary Meeting

The Rotary club's weekly meeting was held Monday at the Masonic temple with the club president, Wilcox Hopkins, presiding.

Vic Mitchell, program chairman, presented a film on the atom bomb showing the many possible peacetime uses of atomic energy. It was pointed out how atomic energy may be used as a source of energy, to replace coal and oil. The film showed how it could be used in the hospitals, in industry, and on the farm.

A Mr. Martin, Rotarian of Washington, Ill., was a guest of the club.

Two Big City Youths Wound Woman in Bank Holdup, But Are Caught in Swamp

PESHIGO, Wis. (AP) — Federal authorities today prepared charges against two big city youths who wounded one person in a small town bank robbery but were outfoxed by a posse in a backwoods swamp.

The two trigger-happy Chicago gunmen shot up the Peshigo National Bank, wounded a woman teller, and tried to get away with almost $1,000 Monday.

The Chicago youths got lost in a swamp on the shores of Green Bay called "The Jungle." They made a half-hearted attempt to shoot it out with a posse of 100 men but surrendered when they were trapped on one of the swamp islands.

One of the gunmen, Albert J. Vito, 21, was trying to follow in the bloody footsteps of his brother, Sheriff Marriner Kohlman said. The brother, Frank Vito Jr., was killed in an attempt to hold up the Southwest Bank of St. Louis, Mo., in 1953.

The other bandit, Harold Vaughn, 17, is a local boy who got "smartened up" in the big city and thought he could find easy pickings in his home town, Kohlman said.

The wounded woman, Mrs. Yvonne M. Sielaff, 27, was in good condition at a Marinette, Wis., hospital six miles from Peshigo. But Kohlman said the bullet had shattered her jaw and doctors will have to operate, perhaps leaving some of the lead in her jawbone.

The Chicago youths burst into the bank with the hammers back on their pistols and opened fire "without even hollering it was a holdup," the sheriff said.

Conferees Agree to Farm Bill Believed Acceptable to Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — House-Senate conferees reached agreement today on a new farm bill believed acceptable to President Eisenhower.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) predicted that Congress would complete action on the bill and send it to the White House Wednesday—37 days after the President vetoed an earlier Democratic sponsored bill.

The new compromise bill includes Mr. Eisenhower's $1,200,000,000 soil bank program designed to cut back the production of surplus crops. But it does not provide for the prepayment plan the President requested.

Boosts Small Grain Supports
The measure also provides for an 8 per cent increase in price supports of small grains this year, a discretionary two-price plan for rice, and an increase in corn acreage from 43 million to 51 million acres.

The national cotton acreage allotment would be increased from 17.4 million to 17.5 million acres under the bill. Of the total, 100,000 acres would go to small farmers.

The House conferees accepted a Senate provision for increasing price supports of barley, grain sorghums, oats and rye from 70 to 76 per cent of parity. Under the provision, feed grain farmers need not meet acreage restrictions or participate in the soil bank.

Senate conferees, in turn, agreed to drop a provision that would have given Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson discretionary authority to put the soil bank into effect this year.

Senate conferees also abandoned a provision that would have permitted farmers to grow as much wheat as they wanted without penalty if the crop was fed to livestock on their own farms.

They also scrapped a provision which would have authorized the government to sell 100,000 bushels of low grade surplus wheat for livestock feed at low prices.

Says It Will Be 'Dangerous' to Revive Quarrel

Two Senate Groups Will Investigate Controversies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson said today after talking with President Eisenhower that it might be "dangerous" for anybody in the military to revive a feud between the services.

Wilson said the President is "a bit unhappy about the fact that we don't seem to get along better in the services."

"What is the next step in the feud?" a reporter asked Wilson. "Let's see who sticks his head up next," Wilson said with a grim smile. "I think it might be a little dangerous."

Two Senate subcommittees served notice that they will investigate the inter-service controversies over missiles and air power. They decided to look into the feud despite Wilson's claim Monday that the squabbling has been exaggerated.

Wilson was questioned about his attitude toward the congressional investigation of the heated competition between the services.

Wilson recalled that in his news conference late Monday he said he saw no particular need for a congressional inquiry.

"But that is really their business," he said today.

Symington Plans Inquiry

Wilson called on the President with Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Wilson said "we had some more important things to talk about" than the service feud.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) announced that his Armed Services subcommittee on air power will take testimony this week on the "positions" of the Army, Navy and Air Force in the missiles field.

The subcommittee, Symington said, also "will inquire into the Navy's mission in the field of air power, including both its primary and secondary missions."

Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) said his military appropriations subcommittee also will "look into this mess" stirred up by bitter inter-service rivalries over roles and missions.

Wilson drove the feud under-

THE DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DEW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Restless Texas Democrats
Gather In Dallas For State Convention; Senator Johnson
Flirts With Rebel Shivers Until The End; Sam Rayburn Was The Real Victor In The Texas Vote.

WASHINGTON. — Some interesting things may happen in Texas today when Texas Democrats, fresh from trouncing Gov. Allan Shivers, gather at their state convention.

Though their vote against Shivers was hailed as a vote of confidence for Sen. Lyndon Johnson, now Texas' favorite son, actually there were some significant backstage factors that may cause ripples of dissent. That's why the astute Lyndon flew back to Texas.

Real fact is that the Texas vote was more a victory for venerable Speaker Sam Rayburn, political patron saint of Texas, than anyone else. Sam had never wavered in his opposition to Shivers. Lyndon had.

In 1952, at the Democratic convention in Chicago, Governor Shivers had given his word to Rayburn that, if given a seat at the convention, he would support the Democratic ticket there chosen.
It was the likable Lyndon who brought his friend Allan to Rayburn's room in the Blackstone hotel and told Sam that Allan could be trusted.

Rayburn did trust him. Whereupon Shivers bolted the ticket, and carried Texas for Eisenhower.

Sam Rayburn has never forgiven him for that and never will.
He, Rayburn, proceeded to stomp
the state of Texas for Stevenson, in opposition to the man who had broken his word, while his young protege, the likable Lyndon, kept aloof. Lyndon made one radio broadcast over his wife's station for Stevenson. That was all.

Meanwhile, Rayburn, aged 70, traveled all over the state. Later he raised money at $10-a-plate dinners. Other loyal Democrats joined him, but not Lyndon.

SECRET FRIENDS

Lyndon and Shivers, meanwhile, remained friends. And when the southern governors' conference met in Boca Raton in 1954, Shivers had a secret talk with his fellow Democratic governor, Jimmie Byrnes of South Carolina in Byrnes' room in which he, Shivers, proposed that the South support Johnson in 1956 as its favorite son.

Governor Byrnes' reaction was brief and to the point. "An upstart and a whippersnapper" was what he called the Democratic leader of the Senate.

Later, when Shivers came to Washington for the governors' conference of 1954, it was his friend Johnson who arranged a breakfast for him with the Texas congressmen. It was cordial and congenial, except for one thing. Shivers made no headway with Speaker Rayburn.

Mr. Sam's motto is: "If a man goes back on his word, never trust him again." He would have no thing to do with Shivers.

However, private meetings between Shivers and Johnson continued. The likable Lyndon believes in compromise. He likes to get along with people. When Johnson would come back to Texas, Shivers would slip out of the capital and go to visit Lyndon at his ranch 65 miles out of Austin.
They worked together on a lot of things, including the selection of Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, satellite of Brown & Root, as Democratic national committeeman.

It was not surprising, therefore, when Lyndon tried to patch up a compromise with Shivers before the recent Texas conventions.
Few people knew it, but he even proposed that Shivers be a delegate to the Chicago convention.
Mr. Sam, however, said no.
Reached by Lyndon on the telephone at Bonham, he stormed:
"No, by God, we won't have that
... on the delegation."
That was that.

JOHNSON IN REVERSE

At an April meeting at the Johnson ranch, Lyndon sat down with the Rayburn loyalists, the Democratic advisory committee which had held the party together for three years, and made a bargain as to what would happen if the loyalists won. The following was agreed:

1. The Democratic party officers must sign a new pledge to support the party. Old officers who had not been loyal must go.
2. The Democratic caucuses of each congressional district would pick its delegate to Chicago without outside interference or dictation.

Shortly after the victory, however, it became evident that Johnson did not agree with what had previously been argued.

First, his leaders demanded the right to veto any delegate not personally acceptable to him. In other words, the pledge of outside interference was thrown overboard.

Second, his leaders want to retain some of the Shiverscrats in key positions, though requiring them to take a new pledge of loyalty.

He also proposed Mrs. Lloyd Bentsen, wife of the ex-congressman as Democratic national committeewoman, even though she supported Eisenhower and though her family arranged that famous $425,000 land-deal profit for Shivers in the Rio Grande valley. Failing her, Lyndon is for Mrs. Max Brooks, who also refused to support Stevenson.

Lyndon also proposes his former assistant, John Connally, as Democratic national committeeman, though Connally was one of the most brazen lobbyists in Washington for the natural gas bill. He worked with Elmer Patman of Superior Oil who financed the $2-500 offer to Senator Case. The fact that he was Johnson's former assistant was one reason Johnson rushed in to kill any real investigation of the gas lobby.

Sam Rayburn has such a deep affection for his protege Lyndon that he will stick with him through thick and thin. However, other Rayburn loyalists don't feel too happy as they gather in Dallas.

They, and they alone, with no help from Johnsonites, carried Harris county (the city of Houston) which has 15 per cent of the vote of Texas. The Johnsonites didn't carry a single precinct. The loyalists also carried Tarrant county (Fort Worth). In 40 other Texas counties, the loyalists passed watered-down resolutions expressing dubious support for Lyndon.

Lyndon Johnson will emerge from the Texas convention the favorite son of Texas all right, but behind the scenes there will be smoldering opposition — not from the Shiverscrats, but from those who consider Lyndon too much like Allan Shivers.

TV No Solution To Teacher Shortage: Buford

SAN FRANCISCO — Dr. John Lester Buford, president of the National Education Assn., told the National Congress of Parents and Teachers Monday that television is not the solution to the teacher shortage.

Buford, of Mount Vernon, Ill., said children need individual attention from a trained teacher.
Furthermore, he said television would not be cheaper than hiring teachers.

"If you have TV, it has to be good TV," he said, "and that is pretty expensive."
Dr. Paul J. Misner, school superintendent at Glencoe, Ill., and president of the American Association of School Administrators, agreed.

"The shortage of qualified teachers will continue to rank as the No. 1 problem on our agenda of unfinished educational business," he said.

But, he added, neither TV, increasing classroom size, nor employing untrained aides as teachers' helpers will solve the teacher shortage. He urged the 10 million members of the PTA to "stoutly resist any proposals that will deny children and personal guidance of friendly, competent and sensitive teachers."

SAFETY FEATURES? Sure, we've got 'em. But Dodge is designed to keep you out of accidents. You'll find out about "preventive safety" when you . . .

DISCOVER THE DIFFERENCE IN DODGE!

Most dramatic proof of "power under perfect control" in automobile history! In 31,000 miles of continuous day-and-night driving at full throttle (like running the Indian applies "500" 62 times in succession!) the '56 Dodge established its claim as the greatest handling car on the road today.

Even the windshield wipers are safer! They're electric—no dangerous "slow down" (like vacuum types)
when you step on the gas.

No "guess work" here—it's simple, sure, safe! Dodge push-button driving is mechanically perfect—the safest, surest way of driving! Control panel is out-of-reach of mischief or mistakes.

Takes the terror out of blow-outs! Dodge Safety-Rim wheels let you guide your Dodge to a safe, sure stop.

Dodge power is your "safety ally!" The Dodge V-8 uses aircraft engine principles to put greater breakaway power at your command.

Naturally, Dodge has pioneered in special safety-equipment too.

Penwomen and "Penguins" Of Egyptian Branch Meet at Eldorado Sunday

A meeting of the Egypt branch of the National League of American Penwomen was held at the Town House in Eldorado Sunday, attended by 20 members of the League, with a half dozen "Penguins" as guests. "Penguin" is the name given husbands of the pen women.

Mrs. O. G. Rawson, East St. Louis, formerly Mrs. Katherine Griffith, Carbondale, who is president of the Egypt Branch, presided and was assisted in plans for the meeting by Mrs. Dallas Tucker, Broughton, who before her marriage was Miss Lucille Bare, a reporter for The Daily Register.

Mrs. Tucker had asked Miss Grace Karnes, editor of the Eldorado Examiner, to present some facts about Eldorado's "Boot-strap" project, with particular emphasis on the Art Center. Gene Bunker, who is Southern Illinois university consultant on community development, described the art center, where pottery is made, giving a brief outline of its history, which began a year ago.

Use of three commercial clubs and possibilities of use of additional clubs are in prospect, Mr. Bunker said. At present a 24 cubic foot kiln is used on a community cultural development on a bold and vast adult educational scale. That it will develop into an industry is the promising outlook, the speaker said.

Mrs. O. P. Dowell, Lawrenceville, freelance magazine story writer, told of some of the trials of a penwoman in the big league. Her most heartbreaking experience came after being invited to submit an animal life story to Readers Digest, spending a month on the story, making two 800 mile trips, and then having it rejected with a check for only $100 for her efforts. Mrs. Dowell, who is secretary of the club, writes for a half dozen magazines, and is the busy housewife and assistant of a Lawrenceville florist.

Mrs. J. A. Musgrave, Harrisburg, who is leaving in July for a tour of Europe in company with her cousin, Miss Elsie Clahanan, Belleville, was a guest of honor at this meeting, to which Miss Clahanan was also especially invited. The members wished Mrs. Musgrave "bon voyage" with a gift to spend on the continent. The centerpiece at the dinner table was a boat with the "banners" of newspapers flying overhead, and place cards were anchors.

Others present included the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Lewis, Anna; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Porter, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hilton, Rt. 51, Makanda; Dallas Tucker; O. P. Dowell, Lawrenceville; Mrs. Jessie Savin, Arcola; Mrs. D. P. Travis, Herpin; Mrs. Paul Wheeler Sr., Marion; Mrs. Henry Moreland, Cairo; and Mrs. O. G. Rawson, East St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Siskey children, Teresa, Gordon and Roger, of Baltimore, Md., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Siskey's mother and sister, Mrs. Teresa James and Jeannette. Mrs. Siskey was formerly Margaret James of this city.

Mrs. Kate Poulos of Whittier, Calif., widow of Tom Poulos, is visiting Mrs. Marie McCormick and Miss Gladys Labin in this city. She is a former local resident.

Senior Unit of Wesleyan Service Guild Meets With Mrs. Thos. L. Osmont

The Senior unit of the Wesleyan Service Guild met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Thomas L. Osmont for the last meeting in the conference year.

Following the devotional subject by Mrs. Alfred Johnson and the lesson by Miss Mary Richardson, members presented their pledge cards which had been filled earlier in the program, at the devotion center. This devotion center was a cross with fruits and vegetables on one side and a piece of bread and some rice on the other illustrating the theme of the lesson which revealed how needy are so many peoples of the world while we have such a bountiful supply of everything.

During the business meeting at which Miss Alice Mount, president, presided, the annual pledge of money to missions was made and money voted to help finance representatives to the Guild Week-end at McKendree this summer. A committee to serve at a dinner for retired ministers next Saturday evening was appointed. This dinner is one of the functions during the Southern Illinois conference this week-end at the local church.

Mrs. Osmont was assisted by Mrs. Herbert Dixon and Mrs. Earl Dabney in serving ice cream and cake for refreshments.

The next meeting will be in June at which time Mrs. J. C. Lightner will be the hostess.

Melvin L. Fishers Honored With Shower

A household shower was held in the basement of the Charleston Street Church of God last Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Fisher.

After an array of beautiful and useful gifts were opened and pictures taken, refreshments of punch, coffee and cake were served to the following: Mrs. Gladys O'Connor, Mrs. Bea Holland, Mrs. Murt Leeke and son, Mrs. Regina Skelley, Mrs. Margie Alexander, Mrs. Charles White, Mrs. Rowena Kevish and daughter, Christie, Mrs. Mima Woolard, Mrs. Edna Hibbs, Mrs. Gladys Aldridge, Mrs. Judy Girard, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hutchinson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Denzil Perkins, Miss Marianne Alexander, Miss Beulah Leivers and niece, Miss Carolyn Sims, Miss Shirley Awalt, Miss Delores Wallace, Miss Janet Fisher, Miss Phyllis Crawford, Rev. E. C. Fisher, Wendell Fisher, Larry Crawford, Roy Brannan and the hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Fisher and Mrs. John E. Crawford.

Many sent gifts who could not be present.

Mrs. Ernst Sturm of Elmhurst, Ill., arrived Monday night to visit for several days with her mother, Mrs. W. O. Gaskins, and to be with her mother while her sister, Mrs. Louise LaBaw, is taking a physical check-up in the Welborn Memorial Baptist hospital in Evansville. Mrs. LaBaw will probably be there for the next three or four days and her room number is 261.

Eisenhowers Hold Garden Party for Vets

WASHINGTON (AP) — President and Mrs. Eisenhower sipped pink fruit punch on the White House lawn Monday with 811 hospitalized servicemen and veterans.

The annual presidential garden party for hospitalized servicemen and veterans was held on the famed south lawn in muggy summer heat.

The President and the First Lady stood under a red and white canopy for 45 minutes shaking hands with their guests. Cabinet members and their wives, who in former years have stood in the reception line, merely circulated among the crowd.

Red Cross volunteers and White House domestic staff members served chocolate and vanilla ice cream, cookies, punch, coffee and cigars.

The first patient through the reception line was Air Force Maj. Oliver Reed of Middleport, Pa. He was one of seven stretcher cases who were invited for the first time to the annual party.

Mrs. Eisenhower, summery in a powder blue embroidered linen dress with matching hat, shoes and gloves, chatted briefly with each of the litter cases.

The President waved to the seven litter cases, saying: "I hope you'll be better soon."

One of the patients to greet the Eisenhowers was Mrs. H. E. Kitteredg of Clinton, Md., 77-year-old veteran of World War I. She had served as a translator for naval intelligence.

ground at least temporarily Monday with disclaimers from top military leaders that their differences on strategy have reached the shrim-kicking stage.

Will Touch Main Issues

Symington's subcommittee will touch on the two main points in controversy:

1. The feud between the Air Force and Army over anti-aircraft missiles and medium-range ballistic missiles.
2. The argument between the Air Force and Navy over the effectiveness of naval air power.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) had forecast earlier that Symington's subcommittee would look into the controversy and "make some recommendations."

Meanwhile, the Army continued to make proud claims for its Nike anti-aircraft missile—a main bone of contention in the dispute.

Praises the Nike

Maj. Gen. John S. Upham, Army deputy chief of staff for operations, told the Senate military appropriations subcommittee that "the most effective surface-to-air weapon available today is the Army Nike missile. The Army's Nike missile system is capable of engaging and destroying any aircraft presently available or known to be planned in the foreseeable future."

The Air Force contends the Nike is overrated.

Control of revolutionary guided weapons is at the heart of much of the Army-Navy-Air Force squabble which erupted in a flurry of publicity over last week end. It caused Wilson to stage an unprecedented news conference with all his military and civilian chiefs Monday.

President Eisenhower castigated the Truman administration during the 1952 campaign for failing to keep the lid on service squabbles. Congressional Democrats can be expected to seize on evidence of the same shortcoming in the GOP administration.

Dongola Man Killed In Train-Auto Crash

GRANTSBURG, Ill. (AP)—Henry C. Bryant, 46, Dongola, was killed today in the collision of an auto and an Illinois Central train.

Fred Harris, 53, Alto Pass, who was driving the car, was stunned and unable to give a clear account of what happened. An inquest was continued until the train crew can return to give statements.

Fined

Charles Shelton Jr. of Ledorf yesterday was fined $22.50 when he pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Wilbur Leitch Shelton was arrested by the sheriff's department on complaint of Shelton's wife.

Pleads Guilty to Setting Fires
To Four Homes

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP)—Robert E. Jones, 29, Kenosha, pleaded guilty today to setting fire to four homes by an elaborate arson scheme in Kenosha Municipal Court Monday.

Judge Harry V. Carlson ordered a pre-sentence investigation for Jones, who was charged with arson and arson with intent to defraud insurance companies.

Jones said he had set fire to four homes in four years. He said he collected $25,000 in insurance before his arrest here.

Sheriff's Investigator William P. Schmitt said Jones set fire to his newly built home here April 26. He allegedly set up an electric heater, stuffed it with paint soaked clothing and went to Champaign, Ill., and "let spontaneous combustion take care of the rest."

Schmitt said Jones admitted using the same techniques in fires at Richmond, Ind., Ypsilanti, Mich. and Huntington, Ind. He said one of Jones' homes burned each year for the past four years—and each time the insurance companies paid the loss.

Schmitt said the fires followed much the same pattern. Jones would build a new home on the outskirts of a city, where fire protection was spotty, and it would burn to the ground while Jones was out of town.

Insurance investigators said that Jones collected $3,900 for a fire at Richmond, Ind., in 1953, $12,000 at Huntington, Ind., in 1954, and Jones also collected $5,600 when his home at Champaign, Ill., burned in 1950. He denied setting that one, but said when he collected the insurance "it seemed to be an easy way to get some money."

At the time his house burned in Kenosha, he was in Champaign, al-

Buick SUPER 6-Passenger 4-Door Riviera

When it purrs, you reign

YOU CAN hardly hear its whispered might—but man, you sure can feel it.

It's power almost without limit—power that humbles the hills, melts the miles, makes you monarch of all you survey.

For this is a new Buick—a '56 Buick—sparked by the most potent engine in Buick annals—a 322-cubic-inch V8 with a crackling high compression of 9.5 to 1.

But what makes you feel even more like bossman of the highway is the great new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

First time you tickle the gas pedal you'll know what we mean.

Now—smack in the top inch of gas pedal travel—right where you save gas every turn of the wheels—you get a swift, sure and supremely positive new getaway response.

For smooth and nimble performance—for sheer mastery in traffic—nothing like it ever was.

And that's just part of it. When you need a still greater flow of get-up-and-go for safety's sake, you merely switch the pitch and you zoom out of tight spots.

So come rule the roost in this '56 Buick.

Come drive a car with 127 gorgeous inches of wheelbase to give it regal room and a ride that's fit for a king.

Try out Buick's new steering—new center-grooved brakes—new direct-acting shock absorbers with triple the former volume of jounce-cushioning oil.

Learn how it feels to boss a car that looks like royalty and acts the part to perfection.

We promise—you'll practically purr with delight at the wheel of this dazzler—especially when you discover how easily you can make it your own.

What do you say—shall we expect you today?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

BEHIND a desk sat Colonel Oberg, Commandant of Averof Prison. He had a classic Prussian face, complete with monocle. Oberg was annoyed that the gang had been hauled in at such an ungodly hour.

His cold eyes took them in one by one. He stopped at Ben Masterton. "You again, Masterton?" "Just can't stay away from home, Colonel."

"Quiet! No buffoonery," Oberg snapped. He turned to the clerk at the small desk near his own. "Charge Masterton with espionage and sabotage."

"Ere we go again..."

"Lock him up."

Four massive Nazis surrounded Masterton and marched him off. "See you later, matey," he called. "Remember, they're all bluff..."

The heavy door banged shut after Ben.

Oberg slapped his riding crop into an open palm and rocked back and forth in his swivel chair. "I hear we have a Jew here. Step forward, Jew."

No movement from the four.

"Step forward, Jew, I say!"

Yichiel released Elpis and moved to the desk. Oberg continued rocking in his chair.

Oberg arose slowly and walked around the desk. He faced Yichiel. The Palestinian returned his cold Russian stare. He lifted the riding crop under the boy's nose.

"Your name, Jew?"

"I am a British soldier!"

Oberg raised his arm and slashed the riding crop across Yichiel's cheek. A streak of blood splashed down his face.

He spit in Oberg's face.

In an instant a half dozen brownshirts engulfed him under flailing clubs. They smashed him to the stone floor. He rolled over and held his arms over his face as they kicked.

Elpis' screams tore through him. She knelt beside him and held his head.

"Take him away," Oberg commanded.

The brownshirts dragged a screaming, kicking Elpis from her husband. Yichiel crawled to his feet and staggered for the door.

Both of them were removed — Elpis still clawing and fighting her three guards.

Both of them were removed — Elpis still clawing and fighting

her three guards.

THE Prussian returned to his chair and resumed his rocking.

He pointed the riding crop at Antonis. "Now don't tell me you are a British soldier, too?"

Antonis stepped forward and answered that he was Antonis, captain of the Arkadia.

"Book him, espionage and sabotage."

Mike now stood alone in the center of the room.

The Colonel leaned over to the clerk. "What do we have on this fellow?"

"False travel card, pistol, a million drachmas — no previous record here."

"Your name?"

"Jay Linden."

"We would like to know more about you, Mr. Linden."

"Jay Linden, Lance Corporal, number 359195, New Zealand."

"Go on."

"As a prisoner of war, that is all I am obliged to give."

Oberg's face cracked into a half-smile. He laughed softly.

"Very well recited, Lance Corporal Linden?"

Mike looked around the room.

The brutal brownshirts awaited a signal. He gritted his teeth and gulfed.

Oberg stared through the monocle. Then resumed his rocking and slapping the riding crop in his palm. "Are you certain you have no more to say, Lance Corporal Linden?"

Mike did not answer.

"You wouldn't be holding some information, Lance Corporal Linden?"

Mike could hear the big clock ticking on the wall. It echoed through the stone room.

Oberg looked up at the clock.

He glanced toward the door

through which Elpis was taken.

BOOK him. Sabotage and espionage."

Oberg arose and the brownshirts came to attention. He motioned to his clerk. "Get this information over to Gestapo in the morning." He nodded to Mike.

"I'm sure Gestapo will make you more anxious to talk."

MIKE was thrown into a black cell. He crawled to his feet and groped about blindly. "Ben," he called. "Ben."

"Over here, matey."

Mike stumbled over sleeping bodies in the dark. The stench of the place was terrific. He made out Ben's immense form kneeling over the prostrate body of Yichiel.

"They gave him a pretty good working over," Ben said.

Yichiel groaned and rolled over.

Mike slipped down to a sitting position on the icy stone floor.

He did something he had not done since his childhood. Michael Morrison cried openly and unashamed.

Ben's hand patted his back. "It will be all right, clobber. They won't keep us 'ere long. In about a week we'll be processed and sent to the P. O. W. side of the cell. It's a lot better on that side..."

Mike pulled himself together and wiped his eyes on his sleeve.

"They'll run us down to Field

Police — Gestapo — and they'll question us and charge us with everything, includin' startin' the war. But they're just bluff, all bluff. Just stand up to them and demand your rights as a British soldier and they'll send you to the P. O. W. side..."

"Who—who does the questioning at Gestapo?"

"Oh, he's a mean bugger, chap named Heiler. But don't worry none, Jay—he's all bluff."

Mantle Hits 16th Homer as Yankees Beat A's, 8-5; Cardinals Trip Giants, 4-1

By United Press
New York Yankees fans are all leaping up about Mickey Mantle's chances of breaking Babe Ruth's home run record but seven American league clubs just wish he'd quit breaking their backs.

Mantle, who blasted his 16th homer to provide the decisive run in New York's 8-5 triumph over the Athletics Monday at Kansas City, now is 11 games and 10 days ahead of the Babe's pace when he set an all-time big league record of 60 homers in 1957.

And the switch hitting Yankee center fielder, far and away the top early-season candidate for the American league's "most valuable player" award, isn't playing any favorites, either.

Of his 16 homers, he has hit four apiece against the Athletics and Cleveland Indians, three against the Boston Red Sox, two apiece against the Chicago White Sox and Washington Senators and one against the Detroit Tigers. Only the Baltimore Orioles have escaped his homer barrage, and Mantle figures to rectify that oversight before the season gets much older.

Would Give "A Million"

Mantle leads both major leagues in four batting departments—homers (16), batting average (.408), runs scored (36), and hits (49) and is second only to teammate Yogi Berra in runs batted, 34 to 33. Any wonder that White Sox Manager Marty Marion said recently, "I'd gladly give a million dollars for Mantle, if I had it."

In the only other major league game scheduled, Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell's four-hit pitching, plus homers by Rip Repulski and Bill Sarni, enabled the St. Louis Cardinals to defeat the Giants at New York, 4-1.

The victory put the Cardinals in second place in the National league. St. Louis has an 18-12 record, actually a half-game better than Milwaukee's 13-8 mark. However, the Braves hold first place with a .619 percentage against .600 for the Cardinals.

Repulski, the National's leading hitter with a .404 average, put the Cardinals in front to stay when he hit his sixth 1956 homer off losing pitcher Don Liddle in the second inning. St. Louis finished Liddle with three runs in the fifth on Wally Moon's single, Bobby Del Greco's triple, Foster Castleman's error and Sarni's homer.

Mizell, boosting his record to 3-2, didn't allow a batter to advance past first until Don Mueller homered with two out in the seventh for New York's run.

Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

Claude Shelton at Carrier Mills will be in the unusual role of a visiting coach at an athletic event he sponsored, come next December.

Several months ago Shelton began work on a proposed four-team "blind draw" basketball tournament to be staged at Carrier Mills during the Christmas holidays. Teams invited included Eldorado, Rosiclare and Metropolis with host Carrier Mills filling out the entry list.

Between the time he started the program and its completion, there was an opening for head basketball coach at Metropolis and Shelton was offered the post. After considerable thought, he accepted.

Even though Shelton sponsored the tourney, he will be a visiting coach, bringing the Metropolis Trojans to the CM gym, Dec. 27-28, dates agreed on by the four schools participating.

Cairo high school has hired a head basketball coach for next year to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jim Redden.

New coach at Cairo high is Hugh Fuqua, who has advanced in the Cairo school system. He has coached basketball in the Cairo junior high school for the past two years and has compiled a great record of 56 victories against 12 losses with the varsity and junior varsity squads. He is a graduate of Murray State with the class of 1950.

I have been handed a copy of the Evansville Courier of May 15 and have just read the sports column written by Daniel W. Seism. Seism is a veteran sports writer and has a column in the Courier daily.

He tells of meeting a potential "All-American" at Evansville college but that the college lost this outstanding basketball prospect to professional basketball. The player referred to is Oliver Rollins, former Carrier Mills high school cager.

Seism states the Evansville college coach, Arad McCutchan, calls Rollins "The best college prospect I've seen . . . He sweeps the boards . . . He can jump and throw the ball down through the hoop . . . He's agile and has a deft touch in his hands."

Closing out the article, Seism tells that Rollins decided to turn pro and go with the Globetrotters and says "He signed with the pros and probably will wind up another Goose Tatum."

TIME FLIES. High school athletic activities are all over for this term of school, BUT it is only about three months until football practice will be underway. We're getting deep into the month of May and football practice starts late in August.

Joe Garagiola, former major league catcher now a broadcaster of Cardinal games, says he never became a baseball strategist. Quoted in The Sporting News, Garagiola said, "When we were kids, Yogi Berra did all the thinking for our team." Joe and Yogi grew up as neighbors in St. Louis.

White Sox Fans Howl at Trade With Orioles

CHICAGO (AP)—Manager Marty Marion said today he had to trade away George Kell, who has hit above .300 in 9 of the last 10 years, because the White Sox were going to finish in the second division if they didn't find another starting pitcher.

Chicago fans are howling that the Sox got the "short end" of the four-for-two player deal with Baltimore.

The Sox sent Kell, outfielder Bob Nieman, pitcher Mike Fornieles and another player to be announced later to the Orioles for pitcher Jim Wilson and outfielder Dave Philley, whom the Sox got rid of once before.

"We don't make any trades that we don't think will help us," Marion said. "And we needed pitching real bad."

"We couldn't finish in the first division with the pitching staff we had."

Marion said Wilson will give the Sox five starting pitchers and his new 34-year-old righthander will begin working in rotation with Billy Pierce, Jack Harshman, Dick Donovan and Bob Keegan.

General Manager Paul Richards of the Orioles said the deal "is going to benefit both clubs." But most White Sox fans figured their former field manager under frantic Frankie Lane pulled the wool over the eyes of Chuck Comiskey, youthful new general manager of the Sox, John Rigney and Marion.

A reporter making a spot check of White Sox fans hours after the surprise deal was concluded didn't find one fan who thought the Sox made a good bargain.

Carrier Mills Student Council Elects Officers

The Student Council of Carrier Mills Community high school met Monday to elect officers for the 1956-57 school term.

Officers are: Phoebe Holmes, president, Larry Edwards vice president, Shirley Pyle secretary, Peggy Berns treasurer.

Athel Tanner is faculty adviser to the Student Council.

One Non-Loop Game Proposed For Big 10 Teams

GRAND RAPIDS, Minn. (AP)—The Big Ten has taken the first step toward de-emphasizing "big time" football on an inter-sectional level.

Western Conference football coaches and athletic directors tentatively approved a proposal Monday night to play a 10-game schedule, including 9 conference games, in 1959 and 1960.

If this is approved at a joint meeting of the faculty representatives and athletic directors in Minneapolis Friday, it will mean the end of most inter-sectional games between Big Ten schools and those of the West Coast, South and East.

Michigan State, Iowa and Purdue have already indicated they would play their one non-conference game with Notre Dame. Indiana, which also has a series with the Irish going, might follow suit.

Ohio State, which played Nebraska, Stanford and Duke last year, could only make one trip instead of three under the new proposal. The same would hold true for Michigan. The Wolverines would have to decide whether to continue their rivalry with Notre Dame or Army, or schedule them alternatively.

To become effective, the recommendation must be approved by the joint group of faculty representatives and athletic directors.

Umpire Clears Cardinal Bench

NEW YORK (AP)—Umpire Stan Landes couldn't figure which St. Louis Cardinal benchwarmer was protesting his ball and strike calls so vigorously Monday at the Polo Grounds so he ordered all 10 of them to the clubhouse during the second inning.

But Manager Fred Hutchinson was the only Cardinal actually thrown out of the game with the Giants. Landes ordered Hutch off the field for making fun of him by telling his bat boy to join the players in the clubhouse.

The Cardinals fruitlessly tried to blame Landes' troubles on two kibitzers sitting behind their dugout—Clyde McCullough and Bob Rush of the Chicago Cubs—who were watching the game on a "busman's holiday."

CANADA'S ENTRY — Pretty Elaine Bishendon, an 18-year-old high school student, will represent Canada at the "Miss Universe" contest in California. Elaine, a Toronto girl, is a star tap dancer, and a medal-winning highland fling dancer.

Ridgway Explodes for 10 Runs in First Inning To Beat Shawneetown

Ridgway exploded for a big ten-run first inning Monday afternoon and went on to take a 15-11 decision from Shawneetown. The high school baseball game was played on the Ridgway diamond.

Ridgway had ten runs in the first, two in the fourth and three in the fifth, scoring the 15 runs on 13 hits and made three errors.

Shawneetown had a lone tally in the second, scored pairs in each of the third and fourth innings and had a big six-run sixth. Shawneetown made 13 hits and ten errors. Roark and Mills pitched for the winners with Hise catching. Shawneetown used Underwood, Brazier and Gunzel on the mound and Gunzel and Drone divided the catching chores.

Senate Committee Approves Higher Gasoline, Tire Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee today approved higher taxes on gasoline, tires and trucks to raise 13 billion dollars for a new 16-year highway building program.

The committee made only one change in highway tax increases already approved by the House. It voted to lower the proposed tax on heavy trucks. The Senate version would produce about 390 million dollars less than the House measure over the 16-year period.

The committee okayed House provisions boosting the federal tax on gasoline, diesel and special motor fuels from 2 to 3 cents per gallon, and tire taxes from 5 to 8 cents a pound.

Also approved were House provisions imposing a new tax of 3 cents a pound on camelback for tire treads and a 2 per cent increase in the excise tax on trucks, truck-trailers and buses.

Six Processors Increase Wholesale Price of Coffee

NEW YORK (AP)—Bad news for the nation's coffee drinkers came today in the form of wholesale price boosts announced by six major processors of the beverage bean.

The hikes ranged from 2 to 4 cents a pound on regular coffee vacuum-packed in tins. New wholesale prices on nearly all well-known brands run from 98 cents a pound to more than $1. That means consumers will be paying upwards of $1.10 a pound for most popular brands within the next week or so.

Trade leaders blamed the increases on higher prices for the coffee beans they must buy in Latin America. The price in Colombia, second largest source, rose steadily in recent weeks and today hit 73 cents a pound. Brazilian beans were selling at 57 cents a pound.

Instant coffees were not affected in today's boosts, but an increase could come any time.

Bus Company Seeks Increase in Rates On Harrisburg Route

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Peoria-Rockford Bus Co. today sought increased fares for operation between Rockford and Bloomington and between East St. Louis, Pinckneyville, Harrisburg and Crossville.

The company filed a fare increase petition with the Illinois Commerce Commission Monday, asking the rates be set at 3 cents per mile for the first 50 miles, 2.5 cents per mile for the second 50 miles and 2.2 cents per mile for all over 100 miles, effective July 1.

Cairo Service Station Operator Fatally Burned

CAIRO, Ill. (AP)—A Cairo service station operator died in Cairo Monday of burns received when gasoline caught fire Saturday.

He was 46-year-old Other Edging. An employee said Edging was cleaning an automobile distributor with gasoline when a spark ignited gas fumes. Edging jumped back and a container of gasoline spilled on his clothing and flamed up.

Japanese to Cut Up U.S. Battleship Oregon for Scrap

KWASAKI, Japan (AP)—The 60-year-old bulk of the once-proud battleship Oregon, which served the United States in three wars, goes under Japanese cutting torches here next month to be sold by the pound as scrap.

The former U. S. flagship, demoted to ammunition barge at the outset of World War II, was purchased by a Japanese iron and steel firm early this year and towed here from Guam by a British tug.

Although puny by modern standards—a 10,000-tonner, mounting 13-inch guns—the Oregon was the pride of the fleet in 1898 when she steamed 17,000 miles around Cape Horn to replace the sunken battleship MAINE in Cuban waters.

Preliminary Hearing On Alcoholic Tax Charges Before McCabe

A preliminary hearing was held yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Harry L. McCabe for Willie L. Dunaway, 32, Clinton, Ky., who was charged by alcoholic tax agents for transporting untaxed distilled spirits. The spirits, it is charged, were purchased in southeast Missouri and he was captured in Cairo May 17. He was bound over to federal grand jury and bond set at $1,000, which he produced.

Four-Year-Old Girl Killed Near Salem

SALEM, Ill. (AP)—Four-year-old Velma Talbert was killed instantly today in the collision of an auto and a pickup truck east of here on U. S. 50.

The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Talbert of Fairfield, was riding in the truck with Mrs. Nora Henson, 36, of near Xenia. Mrs. Henson and the driver of the auto, Amos W. Burkett, Xenia, were injured.

State police said Burkett told them the truck crossed over into his lane and he couldn't avoid the collision.

Truman Places Himself in Army Of Unemployed

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Harry S. Truman placed himself in a new army today—the army of the unemployed.

It came about when reporters told the touring ex-President, a World War I captain, that Naples Mayor Achille Lauro is a rich man.

"Oh, that's good," Mr. Truman cracked. "Maybe I can get a job. In the army of the unemployed."

Mr. Truman hiked across the street from his hotel shortly after dawn to see the beautiful Bay of Naples and sample the weather.

The sightseeing former President scheduled a trip for later to the Salerno beach-head where American invasion forces fought one of the bloodiest battles of World War II.

Committee Votes $332,000 for Wabash River Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations committee Monday recommended spending $332,000 for work on the Wabash river to protect the New Harmony bridge.

Items for the New Harmony bridge channel was included in the omnibus public works money bill reported to the house on the joint recommendation of Rep. Winfield K. Denton, Evansville Democrat, and Charles W. Vursell, Illinois Republican.

Both congressmen said Illinois and Indiana might be encouraged to take over the New Harmony bridge for toll free operation if the federal government assumes responsibility for river and bank stabilization work necessary to protect the underpinnings of the span.

The Easy Way
BETHLEHEM, Conn. (AP)—A town meeting figured it would cost $300 to set up machinery to handle a special referendum to legalize fund-raising raffles for firemen and the American Legion post. H. Samuel Root offered this suggestion: "Let's give the Legion and firemen the $300 and call the whole thing off."

Do FALSE TEETH Rock, Slide or Slip?

FASTEETH, an improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth more firmly in place. Do not slide, slip or rock. No gummy, goopy, pasty taste or feeling. FASTEETH is alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (dense breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

Card of Thanks

Words cannot express our heartfelt gratitude for the many floral offerings and the kindness shown us during our bereavement because of the death of our loved ones. To the Rev. Roy Reynolds, the Rev. William Fuson, the Gaskins Funeral home and our friends and neighbors, we say "Thank you." May God bless you all.

Mrs. Jake O'Toole and family.
